So we began
In a school
So new to us,
Yet so old with
Tradition. It
Seemed so huge,
So strange,
So overwhelming,
But we looked
High, up to the
Point of the tower.
We smiled good-bye
To the road behind us.
We stared, hearts
Full of hope, eyes
Full of awe,
At our world for
The next four years.
We began our
Passage on a new
Journey of Life.

Foreword

I'll give my hand to those who cannot see
The sunrise or the falling rain.
I'll sing my song to cheer the weary along,
For I may never pass this way again.
I'll share my faith with every troubled heart,
So I shall not have lived in vain.
I'll give my hand, I'll sing my song,
I'll share my faith because I know
That the time is now to fulfill each vow,
For I may never pass this way again.

Dedication

To Mrs. Dorothy Di Domenico, we dedicate the forty-first edition of the Huttlestonian. As head of the Music department, Mrs. Di Domenico has unselfishly aided the Seniors at Fairhaven High School.

This year Mrs. Di Domenico, affectionately known as Mrs. Di to all the students, directed our Senior play, "Brigadoon." She has helped us to present many fine concerts and assemblies for the town and school. Last year we hosted The Southeastern Massachusetts District Auditions Festival under her direction. Mrs. Di has always been understanding and a friend to us all.

The Fairhaven High School graduating class of 1967 owes a great debt of thanks to Mrs. Di Domenico, and in appreciation for her understanding we fondly dedicate this yearbook.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1967!

You have the distinction of being the last class to begin and end your entire high school career within the structure of Fairhaven High School. As you passed the days and years since your beginning here, we hope that you took unto yourself much of the tradition, pride and knowledge that was your heritage.

All of us, you the Seniors, and we the Faculty, have given and received a measure of human growth during our years together. Perhaps in passing we did not gather up all the wealth that was there for the taking. Yet from this, we can draw a lesson, one that should be ever renewed. As we pass through life, we must reach out for all that will enrich us in mind and heart. It is all too true that we may never pass this way again. To each who asks, "Is this a time for learning? we, like the aging Greek, Lacydes, must reply, "If not, when will it be?"

For each of you, we wish success and the satisfaction of a life well lived. As you depart, you leave an indefinable something which adds to the fullness of our lives and which reminds us that as you passed you left the warm imprint of youth.

CHARLES C. ENTWISTLE
Principal

A d m i n i s t r a t i o n

CHARLES C. ENTWISTLE B.S., M.A.

Mr. Entwistle, our principal, has directed another successful year at Fairhaven High. He is a graduate of the University of Massachusetts, and received his degrees from that institution. He is currently doing work for an Ed.D at Boston University. In his spare time he enjoys Civil War histories, home improvements, and gardening.

CARLTON C. ALBRITTON B.S., in Ed.

Mr. Albritton is our vice-principal. Always ready to listen, he has been most helpful to our class. A former resident of Junction City, Arkansas, he graduated from Southern State College.

DORIS BRUCE B.A., M.A.

Mrs. Bruce is our college course Guidance Counsellor, whose invaluable assistance has guided so many Fairhaven High School students to successful and productive college careers. She attended Bridgewater State College and Boston University. Her favorite pastimes include reading, cooking, and outdoor activities.

FERNANDO SILVA B.S.

Mr. Silva is our business and general course Guidance Counselor. His knowledge and assistance have helped to place Fairhaven High School seniors in their chosen careers. He graduated from New Bedford Institute of Technology. In his spare time he enjoys hunting, fishing, and carpentry.

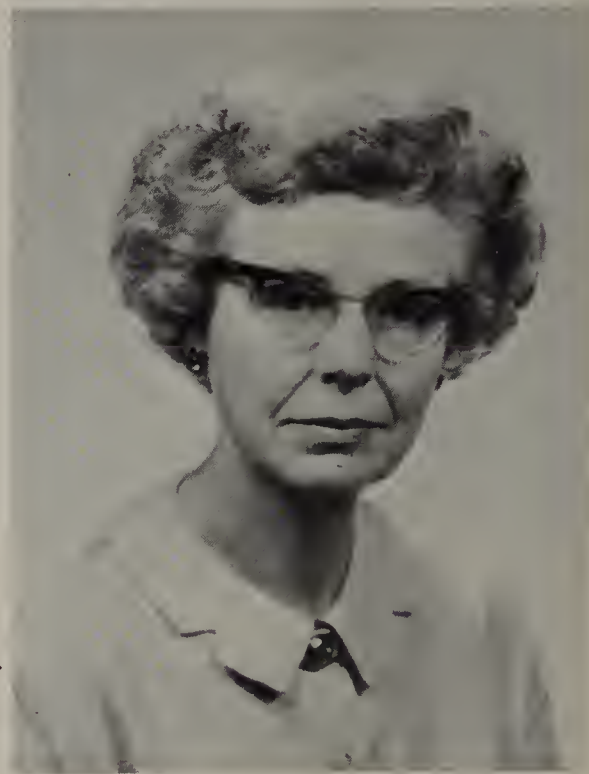

English . . . The Gateway To Knowledge and Communication

Our fine English Department prepares us to take the next big step in our lives, be it on to higher education or out into the world to find a job, for English is the means through which we learn and communicate with others. Fairhaven students are given an introduction to the great classics and a solid background in grammar and creative writing.

MABEL H. KNIPE A.B., M.A.

Mrs. Knipe is the head of the English Department. She is a graduate of Tufts University and Boston University. Her interests are reading, sewing, gardening, creative writing, music, and theatre.

MARGARET C. HOWLAND A.B.

Mrs. Howland teaches English to Junior and Senior students. An alumna of Wheaton College, she enjoys reading, cooking, and talking with teenagers.

EDITH M. MOORE A.B.

Mrs. Moore is a teacher of English. A graduate of Wheaton College, she enjoys reading and gardening. She is also interested in animals. Mrs. Moore is a former chairman of the Fairhaven School Committee.

MERCEDES PITTA B.M. M.M.

Miss Pitta attended Wellesley, Yale University, Radcliffe, and Boston University. She teaches English and French. Her interests include walking and gardening.

EVELYN SHAPIRO B.S. in Ed.

Mrs. Shapiro, a graduate of Bridgewater State College, teaches English. An accomplished violinist, she enjoys the theatre, opera, and concerts.

SUSAN TRAFTON B.A.

Miss Trafton, who teaches English and Public Speaking, graduated from Gordon College. In her spare time, she enjoys playing both the guitar, and tennis.

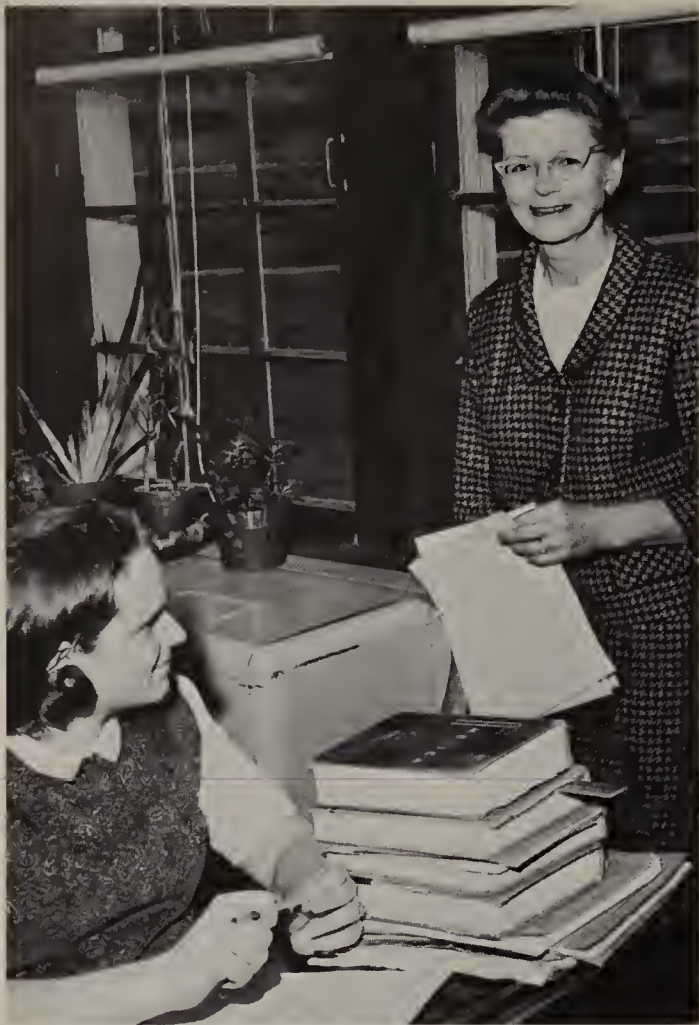

MARY LOUISE BOYCE B.S.

Mrs. Boyce, our librarian, graduated from Fitchburg State College. She has also taken courses at Colby College. Her interests include sports, and reading. She also enjoys collecting antiques and repairing furniture.

MARGARET A. MANGHAN B.S., M.S.

Miss Manghan, the reading supervisor at Fairhaven High School, attended Boston College, and Bridgewater State College. Her interests include art, languages, and people.

"My class just loves surprise quizzes."

"How dare you interrupt my 'Dagger Speech' "

"My dear girl, I think your tact leaves something to be desired."

"George, this is supposed to be an impromptu speech"

Miss Pitta conducts an enthusiastic class.

"Everyone repeat after me 'I love English Literature' "

"And they thought this was going to be a snap English course."

Foreign Languages . . .

Door To Other Lands

The world of the future will be one of expanding trade, travel, and communication. In all these fields language will become increasingly important. Our Foreign Language Department offers instruction in the modern tongues of French and Spanish, and in the ancient language, Latin.

DONALD J. B. DUFOUR B.A., M.Ed.

Mr. Dufour is the head of the Foreign Languages Department. A graduate of Assumption College and Bridgewater State College, he teaches French. His varied interests include tennis, camping, gardening, and reading French novels.

STEVEN BARRITEAU B.A.

Mr. Barriteau, who teaches Spanish and French, graduated from Stonehill College and attended Bridgewater State College. In his spare time, he enjoys reading and fishing.

EDITH G. DIAS A.B.

Mrs. Dias, who teaches Latin and French, graduated from Pembroke College. In her spare time, she enjoys reading, the theatre, and music. Mrs. Dias also takes great pleasure in traveling. Many of her summers have been spent touring European countries.

MERCEDES PITTA B.M. M.M.

Miss Pitta attended Wellesley, Yale, Radcliffe, and Boston Universities. She teaches English and French. Her interests include walking and gardening.

"No, Pig-Latin is not a foreign language!"

"Isn't it getting a bit warm in here?"

"Why did you ever enroll in the Spanish course?"

Mathematics and Science

Mathematics and science courses at Fairhaven High take us still further through the abstract and the practical. Courses in modern math offer an opportunity to come to grips with theoretical concepts which are still being tested and debated. The general math courses give training in the basic and necessary uses of figures and tools which all of us shall need in later life. Slide rules and log tables guide us in our search.

JOHN G. MALCOLM B.S.

Mr. Malcolm is the head of our Mathematics Department. He graduated from New Bedford Institute of Technology. In his spare time, Mr. Malcolm enjoys boating and fishing, and is an avid "do-it-yourselfer."

CHARLES CIPOLLINI B.S.

Mr. Cipollini, a teacher of mathematics, has been with us for two years. A graduate of Bradford Durfee College of Technology, he enjoys cooking, sports, and golf in his spare time.

IONA J. KUNZ B.S.

A graduate of Simmons College, Mrs. Kunz teaches mathematics. Among her varied interests are literature, adolescents, gardening, sailing, poetry, art, knitting, and cooking.

The sciences at Fairhaven are a link with the future. Biology helps us to understand the physical environment in which we live. Physics and chemistry teach the universal truths of matter and energy.

RAYMOND G. BOYCE B.S., M.Ed.

Mr. Boyce, head of the Science Department and a teacher of chemistry, attended Fitchburg State College, Bridgewater State College, and Boston College. One of his greatest interests is collecting rare rock specimens.

JOSEPH DRAPEAU B.S.

Mr. Drapeau is a teacher of physics, chemistry, and mathematics. A graduate of Bradford Durfee College of Technology, he counts skindiving and chess among his interests.

MELVIN ENTIN B.S.

Mr. Entin, a teacher of biology is an alumnus of the University of Rhode Island. He is also Fairhaven's Director of Athletics and Physical Education. Among his interests are woodworking, gardening, and fishing.

VIRGINIA KOWAL B.S.

Miss Kowal, who graduated from the University of Massachusetts, teaches biology and United States history. She cites her interests as gardening, raising animals, and painting.

"Come-on, this math isn't really that hard."

"Aren't these tests fun?"

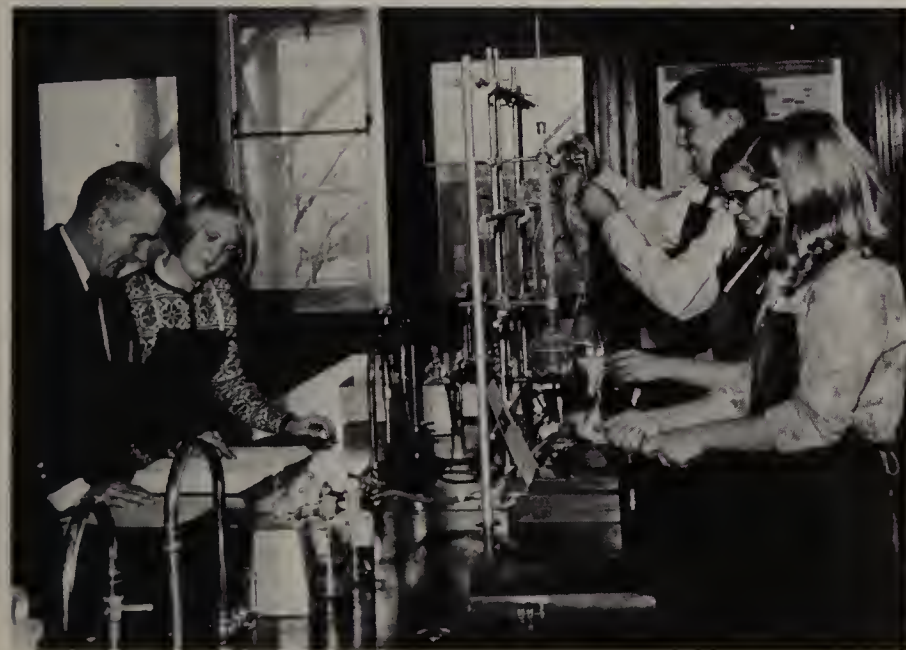

"When I talk, everyone listens."

"We'll never tell what happened to the fish."

"Wait till my children find out their slinky toy is gone."

"So this is how you make a bomb."

"I hope my pancreas isn't made of plastic!"

Social Studies . . . the Key to Citizenship

The Social Studies Department prepares us for citizenship in our modern world. A knowledge of the past provides us with experience with which to face the future. History, government, economics, and non-European civilization are among the courses offered to Fairhaven students.

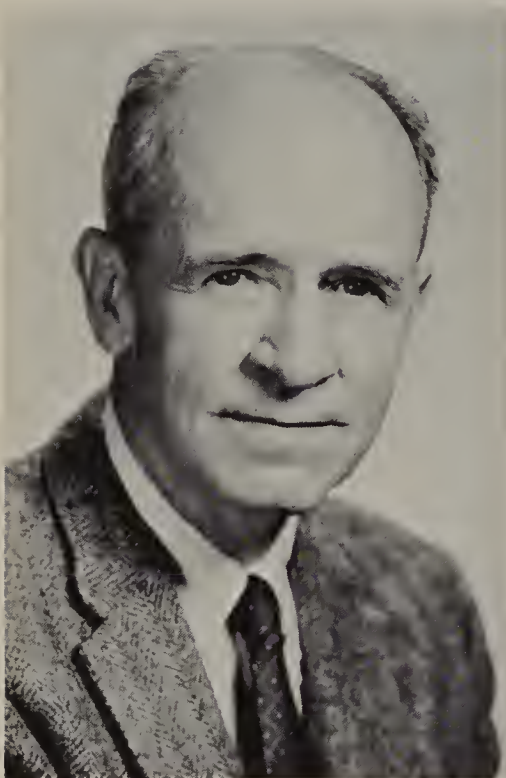

EDWARD F. TRAINOR A.B., M.A.

Mr. Trainor, head of our Social Studies Department, attended Boston University and Bridgewater State College. He teaches non-European civilization, and in his spare time enjoys reading, bowling, and swimming.

ALEXANDER M. CLEMENT B.S., M.Ed.

Mr. Clement attended Williams College, North Adams State College, and Hyannis State College. A teacher of United States History, Mr. Clement enjoys visiting historical places. He also likes sports and crossword puzzles.

CHARLES F. FOLEY B.S. in Ed.

Mr. Foley, a graduate of Bridgewater State College, teaches world history, United States history, and economics. He enjoys music and sports, and he is interested in foreign affairs.

WILLIAM OLIVEIRA B.S. in Ed.

Mr. Oliveira graduated from Bridgewater State College. A teacher of geography, government, and history from 1700, Mr. Oliveira likes bowling and photography.

I wouldn't know. That was a little before my time.

No, Mr. Cabral, the Portuguese didn't discover America.

Well, the Constitution states ...

So, you want to take the make up test ...

Business . . . the Road to Opportunity

The Business Department trains Fairhaven pupils for positions in the world of production, trade, and finance. Business raised America's standard of living to its present level, and feeds, clothes, and houses all of us. The future of our country depends to a large extent on how our free enterprise system will meet the challenges facing it.

MARIE R. NOYER B.S. in Ed.

Mrs. Noyer is head of the Business Department and teaches office practice. She graduated from Salem State College. Mrs. Noyer's main interests include politics, the theatre, furniture refinishing, gardening, and knitting.

STELLA S. BOROWIEC B.S. in B.A.

Mrs. Borowiec, who attended Southeastern Massachusetts Institute of Technology, teaches typing and bookkeeping. Among her interests are sports and working for children's organizations.

MANUEL FONTES B.S., B.A., M.Ed.

Mr. Fontes is a graduate of Boston College and Bridgewater State College. He teaches business law and bookkeeping, and his interests are fishing and wood-working. One of his heaviest tasks is advising the HUTTLESTONIAN staff!

RUTH S. ROBINSON B.S. in Ed.

Mrs. Robinson, a graduate of Salem State College, teaches stenography and transcription. In her spare time she enjoys cooking, reading, and rug braiding,

RAYMOND J. SULLIVAN
B.S. in B.A., Ed.M.

Mr. Sullivan, who teaches bookkeeping, typing, and stenography, graduated from Boston University College of Business Administration and Boston University School of Education. Among his interests are photography, music, and hockey.

Mrs. Robinson smiles at the thought of progress.

"It must be the book that's wrong, not me."

"You could have fooled me!"

Mr. Sullivan conducts a typing class.

"That's good, we're only $3,000 off."

"Life is full of surprises!"

"At this rate no one will hire us."

Fine and Practical Arts

The fine and practical arts courses at Fairhaven High School give us the opportunity to "learn by doing." The fine arts department, while doing its utmost to prepare those so inclined for artistic careers, also gives every student a media for self-expression and an appreciation of beauty.

DOROTHY DIDOMENICO B.M.

Mrs. Di Domenico is our music supervisor. A graduate of Boston University, she enjoys cooking and reading in her spare time.

ANTHONY REGO B.M.Ed.

Mr. Rego, our band director, graduated from the New England Conservatory of Music. He enjoys listening to records, playing his trumpet, and participating in sports, especially football.

ELIZABETH MANDELL

Mrs. Mandell, our art supervisor, graduated from the School of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. Among her interests are block printing and portrait painting.

JOSEPH RAPOZA

Mr. Rapoza, our art teacher, is a graduate of Bradford Durfee School of Technology. In his spare time he enjoys modern jazz, sports car racing, and painting.

The home economics courses train girls in the best possible way—by giving them the chance to create under trained supervision. This also is the function of Fairhaven's industrial shops, where boys learn the rudiments of a trade or to use their hands constructively and creatively. With T-square and lathe, we are helped along in our search.

GENEVIEVE R. MODESTO

Mrs. Modesto attended Bridgewater State College, Fitchburg State College, Rhode Island School of Design, and Syracuse University. She teaches clothing and homemaking.

RICHARD L. ARIETA B.S.

Mr. Arieta is a graduate of New Bedford Institute of Technology and Bridgewater State College. He has also done graduate work at Siena College. Mr. Arieta teaches mechanical drawing and mathematics. He is also our assistant football coach, junior varsity basketball coach, and coach of our golf team.

JOSEPH E. Le BLANC

Mr. LeBlanc teaches printing and industrial arts. He is a graduate of St. Anthony School. After school, he enjoys working in his own print shop.

PETER BOROWIEC

Mr. Borowiec, who teaches shop, is a graduate of Southeastern Massachusetts Institute of Technology and is currently attending Northeastern University. His main interest is his shop at home.

My goodness, what would you ever do without a ruler!"

"You wouldn't dare hang that in room 7!"

"Nobody will know this frosting came out of a can."

"If anyone ever touches this, it'll probably fall apart."

"A in the A- box, B- in the B- box ... I think I'm catching on."

"The Mixed Chorus at work."

Physical Education

Physical education is a prime factor in building the complete student. For, indeed, no one who is not physically fit can search after knowledge. This is the function of our physical education department—to promote fitness and to provide a means for recreational activity.

MELVIN ENTIN B.S.

Mr. Entin, our Director of Athletics and Physical Education, is a graduate of the University of Rhode Island. He is also a teacher of biology. Among his interests are woodworking, gardening, and fishing.

MICHAEL L. DODGE B.S.

Mr. Dodge, a graduate of the University of Rhode Island, teaches physical education, mathematics, and biology, and also is an assistant football coach. In his spare time he enjoys sports of all types.

SALVATORE J. LOMBARDO
B.S. in B.A., M.A.

Mr. Lombardo, an alumnus of Northeastern University, is our varsity football coach. He also teaches physical education, history, and mathematics. Among his interests are gardening, reading, and refinishing furniture.

All right, try to score now!

Come on, fellas, let's play "dodge" ball.

Twenty laps and I'm still smiling!

You mean you want me to demonstrate?

You were watching, weren't you?

She's at the end of her rope!

Clerical Staff and School Nurse

The clerical staff at Fairhaven organizes and coordinates us into a smoothly run unit in which each individual is an integrated part of the whole. They keep the records, file the tests, and write out the slips that keep F.H.S. in good working order. Our school nurse serves us by watching over our health while we are in classes here.

EVELYN L. MARTIN

A most helpful and well-known person to all Fairhaven students is Mrs. Martin, secretary to Mr. Entwistle. A graduate of Kinyon Secretarial School, her interests include reading, cooking, music, and antiques.

RITA CHAMPAGNE

Mrs. Champagne is secretary to the vice-principal. A graduate of St. Anthony High School, she enjoys bowling and ice skating.

ALDA HAYWARD

A graduate of Brockton Business College, Mrs. Hayward is our guidance secretary. She enjoys music and painting, and she spends much of her leisure time playing the organ.

LOUISE F. DENNIE R.N.

Mrs. Dennie, our school nurse, is a graduate of Truesdale Hospital School of Nursing. She has for years been a loyal fan of all Fairhaven High School athletic teams.

Students and teachers at Fairhaven High School owe a great deal of thanks to our custodians and cafeteria workers. Through their efforts, we are provided with clean and polished classrooms and nutritional hot lunches. These employees of the Fairhaven school system deserve much commendation for their work in providing us with a healthy and cheerful atmosphere in which to work and study.

"We make it, they eat it."

And Custodial Staffs

Our mighty army of custodial forces meets outside its secret headquarters to plan the day's battle against the subversive powers of dirt.

But why did you tell him that you wouldn't clean Room 11?

Now, the first step to being an editor is learning how to clean out your office.

Memories
Of the hours
We spent in
This room will
Linger on
Throughout the years.
We seniors
Shall no more
Occupy these seats;
No more
Shall we pass
Through these aisles;
But pausing,
We look
Upon this room
For the last time—
Leaving its Serenity and Beauty to our Underclassmen.

Class History

We, the class of 1967, with anticipation of the coming years, entered Fairhaven High School in September, 1963. We were the last class to enter Fairhaven High as Freshmen. In our first year, our class officers were: Howard Barrow, President; Jane Tillotson, Vice-President; Susan Medeiros, Secretary; and Cynthia Desroches, Treasurer. Our Executive Board members were: Henry Bernier, Thomas Carvalho, Beverly Collins, Donna Howard, and Warren Livesley. Our class advisors: Mr. Sullivan, Mrs. Modesto, Miss Campbell, and Mr. Boyce, guided us in our project of selling magazines and in other experiences which were new to us. Our Freshman year had come to an end, and having successfully completed it, we looked forward to being Sophomores.

Although we were still the youngest class, our first year had given us a feeling of confidence for our Sophomore year. For this year, we elected as our officers: Howard Barrow, President; Jane Tillotson, Vice-President; Susan Medeiros, Secretary; and Thomas Powers, Treasurer. Henry Bernier, Barbara Bouchard, and Betty Jones were chosen as Executive Board members. Since our magazine project had proved so profitable in our Freshman year, we decided to sell magazines once again.

In the fall of 1965, we entered our Junior year as upperclassmen. To guide us through this very important year, we chose as our officers: Thomas Murphy, President; Gordon Sykes, Vice-President; Howard Barrow, Secretary, and Barbara Bouchard, Treasurer. George Amaral, Susan Hartigan, Louis Kruger, Susan Medeiros, and Thomas Powers, served on the Executive Board. In the late autumn, we received our class rings, designed the previous year by our Ring Committee. A class project of selling fruit cakes was successful during the holiday season. In March, four members of our class, George Amaral, Barbara Bouchard, Ronald Chasse, and Thomas Powers were initiated into the Honor Society during a solemn ceremony. April 29 was a date that will always remain in our memories, for that was the night of our Junior Prom, with its theme,

"Arabian Nights." On this very special night, we danced under a lavish Arabian tent. The climax of the evening was reached when Cynthia Desroches was crowned Queen. She was attended by Dawn Logan, her lady-in-waiting; Elinor Austenberg, Rita Brieze, Kathleen Fletcher, Linda Holmes, Sandra Laliberte, Jane Tillotson, and June Wyss.

A very important day in our high school years was Junior Day. Barbara Bouchard was the recipient of the College Club Book Award, and Thomas Booth received the Harvard Club Book Award. Our president, Thomas Murphy, accepted the symbolic mantle of leadership from Randall Leisey, the President of the Senior Class in the traditional ceremony. With the realization that we would soon be the responsible leaders of our school, we solemnly left the auditorium.

Last September we returned to the halls of Fairhaven High School to begin our final year. We looked forward with great anticipation to the activities of the coming year. The first duty which we performed as seniors was the election of officers. Barbara Bouchard was chosen President; Thomas Booth, Vice-President; Howard Barrow, Secretary; Thomas Powers, Treasurer, while George Amaral, Thomas Carvalho, Andrea Cromie; Susan Hartigan, and Emerson Hiller, served as the Executive Board. Breaking with tradition, we decided to present a musical as our Senior production. "Brigadoon," by Lerner and Loewe, was performed at the Junior High School on April 7 and April 8.

June 9 was a significant day for us. As on the previous Junior Day we had received the mantle, so now did we relinquish it to the Class of 1968 as Jeffrey Silva President of the Junior Class accepted this symbol of responsibility. In the evening we attended our Prom which was held in the Gold Room of the New Bedford Hotel. Senior Vespers were held June 11 in the Old Auditorium. Our Graduation, which was held in the Larch Avenue Auditorium on June 14, ended four years that we shall never forget.

Class Officers

The Class of 1967 can be very grateful for the wonderful job which the class officers and executive board have done this past year. In addition to arranging class projects, the officers made arrangements for the Senior prom and other Senior functions. Our class officers have shown the qualities of leadership and responsibility in aiding the class through our Senior year.

EXECUTIVE BOARD: G. Amaral, T. Cavalho, E. Hiller, A. Cromie, S. Hartigan

CLASS OFFICERS: B. Bouchard, Pres., T. Powers, Treas., H. Barrow, Sec., T. Booth, V-Pres.

Class Will

We, the Fairhaven High School graduates of 1967, being of sound mind and body, do hereby ordain and establish our last will and testament.

BEVERLY COLLINS leaves the Old Auditorium regretfully.

ARTHUR CUDDY leaves his freckles to HAROLD GIFFORD.

ANDREA CROMIE leaves her school spirit to SUSAN BOULEY.

CYNTHIA DESROCHES leaves her rosy cheeks to JANICE BROWN.

KATHLEEN FINCH leaves her headaches as Senior Editor to anyone who will take the job.

KATHLEEN FLETCHER leaves the Main Office to DIANE BACHAND.

DOUGLAS OUMET leaves his French plays to JANICE CANTO.

EMERSON HILLER leaves his pole to anyone who wants to fly high.

LINDA HOLMES leaves her arguments with MR. TRAINOR to any unsuspecting Junior.

TERESA FURTADO leaves her violin to her sister.

DEBORAH JACKSON leaves her basketball sneakers to PAULA CABRAL.

LOUIS KRUGER leaves his collegiate looks to GILBERT VIERA.

JOHN MCCOMBE leaves his cafeteria duty to his brother.

WILLIAM MORGAN leaves his football to STEVEN ISHERWOOD.

THOMAS MURPHY leaves his dirty sweatshirts to STEVEN CABRAL.

CLIFTON PATENAUDE leaves his practical jokes to CLIFFORD DAVIGNON.

GAYLE QUINTIN leaves her athletic posters to PATRICIA BRENNAN.

JO-ANN RESENDES leaves the artroom to CHRISTINA JACOBSEN,

JANE TILLOTSON leaves the center to CAROL SZELIGA.

PHILIP WHITING leaves the Audio Visual equipment to JAMES WALKER.

MARY LEE EDWARDS leaves her BRIGADOON score reluctantly.

THOMAS JOHNSON AND DAWN LOGAN leave together.

PETER AND SERGIO leave with fond remembrances of F.H.S.

THE HUTT STAFF leaves tranquility to the third floor, as well as one vase of flowers and a pair of Madras curtains

Given in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and sixty-seven, we do hereby proclaim this last will and testament, and hereby appoint Miss Campbell as executor.

In Memoriam

CYNTHIA JEAN HESKETH
July 1949—March 1966

CYNTHIA

by Linda Gustafson
Class of 1966

The morning fog still draped the sky,
And sadness filled the air.
Your friends could only sit and cry
With hearts so full of fear.

The sweetness of your laugh no more
Shall make our sad hearts gay—
Your friendship we can share no more
For God has taken you away.

Your lovely eyes no more shall see
The things you loved the best,
But, Cindy, you're with us in memory
Though you've departed to eternal rest.

CINDY

Too soon you left this world of hate
An angel took your arm
And led you through the great pearl gate
Where you're now safe from harm.
You left too soon to say good-bye
Too soon did you depart.
You were too young and sweet to die
And take a part of each heart.
I know you're happy where you are
But missed by all your friends—
And since you've gone away so far
A part of each happy life ends.

Our lovely Queen, Cynthia Desroches and her date.

Black and gold streamers forming an Arabian tent transformed our auditorium into an exotic fantasyland.

After greeting the patrons and patronesses, we waltzed to the entrancing music of Ed Canto's Orchestra.

In the midst of palm trees, harem dancers, and magic carpets, Cynthia Desroches was crowned Queen by Peggy Bouley, last year's lady-in-waiting. Surrounding our Queen and her lady-in-waiting, Dawn Logan, were Elinor Austenberg, Rita Brieze, June Wyss, Kathleen Fletcher, Jane Tillotson, Linda Holmes, and Sandra Laliberte, the court. Following the coronation, we all joined in the Grand March, led by our class president, Thomas Murphy, and his date.

Eleven o'clock rang out the end of our Junior Prom, but the enchantment of the evening will long be remembered by all.

and integrity. Last year Thomas Booth received the Harvard Book Club Award ...

and Barbara Bouchard received the College Club Book Award.

This year Fairhaven High could claim its own special tie to West Germany in the person of foreign exchange student Peter Steffens. Peter Hans Steffens is a citizen of Remscheid, an industrial city of about 130,000, near the western border of Germany. He arrived in the United States on Aug. 18 along with his European shipmates.

Here Peter lives with his American parents, Rev. and Mrs. William Bradley and their son Fred at 17 Elm Avenue. Peter's real father is an employee of the public utilities department in Remscheid.

When the sad time to leave finally did come, however, the good-bye card read:

To Pete,

Best of Luck.

A Friend Always,

Fairhaven High School.

Service Students

This year Fairhaven High School is fortunate enough to have two A. F. S. Students. Our second student is Sergio Guerrero. He is living with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gobell of 139 Laurel Street.

Sergio's family in Ecuador consists of three brothers and two sisters. His father owns three banana farms in Guayaguil, Sergio's hometown. Outside of school, Sergio enjoys such activities as baseball, basketball, soccer, and indoor football.

All the Seniors have enjoyed the presence of this years A. F. S. Students. We hope that each of them will take back happy memories of their experiences in Fairhaven, We shall never forget our young good-will ambassadors.

Senior Play

Music met drama for the first time in a Senior Play presented by the Class of 1967 under the direction of Mrs. DiDomenico. "Brigadoon," the Lerner and Loew classic, was performed in true Scottish style for a two night run in the Junior High School Auditorium. This year's Senior Play gave F.H.S. and the town something by which to remember the class of 1967.

Soon
These books
Will be ours . . .
Each book
Is a stepping
Stone to
Our final
Goal . . . the Dream of Becoming upperclassmen.
We must wait
Patiently . . .
We, the underclassmen,
Enjoying our
Years to the Fullest, shall
Wait our turn.

Class of 1969

Having come to the end of our first year at F.H.S., we are now looking forward to our first year as upperclassmen with great enthusiasm. Our sophomore class was led by class officers P. Hariman, S. Torres, T. Wojcik, and S. Gardella, and executive board members M. Carter, S. Green T. Darwin, J. Wyss, and N. Knutsen. Our class project, selling magazines, was very successful due to the great efforts of all our classmates. We are certain that the trials and tribulations we have experienced thus far will serve us in good stead throughout our junior and senior years.

The Sophomores' first days at F.H.S. were hectic and confusing.

By the time he gets this picture taken we'll be seniors.

Class of 1968

We have completed our first year as upperclassmen and are now looking forward to our last. Although our junior year is over, our fond memories will linger on. Throughout the year we have been led by class officers S. Bouley, S. Isherwood, J. Silva, and P. Wojcik, and Executive board members P. Cabral, B. Dearden, J. Fortin, J. Jacobsen, and A. Darden. We've had our prom and Junior Day, and now we are officially seniors. We are on the threshold of life and new learning.

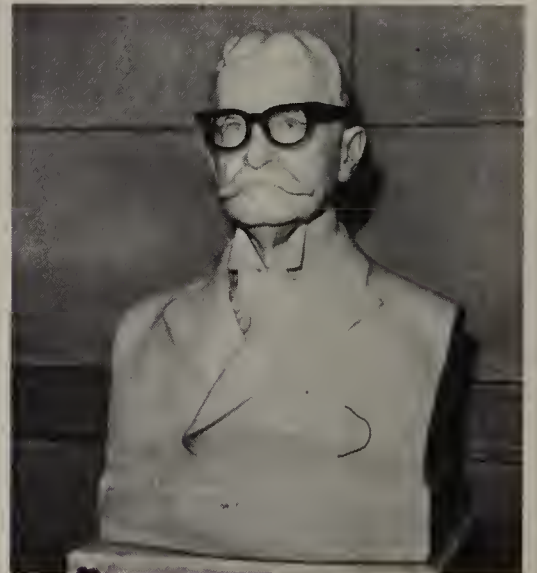

These Juniors take pride in their class rings.

Juniors learn U.S. History from Mr. Clement.

Remnants
Of the years
Gone by . . .
We leave
Our high
School instruments.
We relinquish
Our gavels
To new leaders.
So with the joy,
The experiences,
The memories
That will last
Forever, the Friendship that
Must part now,
We end our
High school
Activities.

National

Society

Left to right: B. Bouchard, V. Pres.; R. Chasse, Pres. T. Powers, Treasurer; G. Amaral, Sec.

The Fairhaven High School Chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in 1927. The attainment of membership in this Society, which is both an honor and a responsibility, has been the ultimate aim of all students. The members must be willing and able to uphold its ideals of scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

Student Council

The Student Council is in actuality the governing body of Fairhaven High School. Under the direction of Mr. Silva, the Student Council has been instrumental in formulating school policies and deciding upon student conduct and regulations.

Stronger than dirt.

1966

In 1966 the Fairhaven High Blue Devils performed valiantly, but unfortunately they were unable to produce many victories. However, they displayed remarkable determination and courage and never gave up.

This marked the second year for Sal Lombardo as head monitor of the Blue Devils and, assisted by Coaches Richard Arieta and Mike Dodge, he did a fine job in keeping spirits up and teaching good sportsmanship in the darkest hours.

This season also marked Fairhaven High's entrance to the newly formed Capeway Conference League. Competing as an independent school last year, Fairhaven High welcomed the chance of joining with eight other schools in forming this league.

Bombs away!

Billy hauls in a big one.

VARSITY: D. Manchester, J. Sylvia, M. Janak, D. Netinho, H. Barrow, T. Johnson, L. Smith, G. Viera, Coach Wayne Wilson.

Basketball

1966-67

Basketball has always been a favorite sport at Fairhaven High School, and one which has brought us much recognition. The 1966-67 season was one in which the Blue Devils proved once and for all that they are truly worthy of the number one position. Coach Wilson's varsity squad finished the regular season as the unbeaten champions of the Capeway Conference, while Coach Arieta's Jayvee squad ended their play with an equally respectable 18-2 record.

JUNIOR VARSITY: Kneeling: Coach Arieta;

NEW BEDFORD STANDARD-TIMES

At the close of their regular season the Fairhaven High cagers entered competition in the Tech tourney. Their first opponent was Scituate and they successfully defeated this team by a score of 75 to 66. The boys were then scheduled to play Dennis Yarmouth, a team which they had beaten twice during their regular season of play. Spirits were high as the two teams once again faced each other for the third and final time. However, even for the first time this year, the boys were unable to defeat their opponent and lost to D.Y. by a score of 50 to 46.

Track 1966

In 1966, the Fairhaven High track team, under the guidance of Coach Mike Dodge, made an exceptionally fine showing. Although the competition proved stiff, the Blue tracksters, through hard work and determination, compiled a laudable 6-2 slate.

Billy Morgan waits for the big one.

Tom Johnson takes a cut.

The Fairhaven High School baseball team had a fine 9 and 5 record in their first year as an independent. The team was well balanced, this contributed to its successful season. The highlight of the season came when Fairhaven defeated Bourne 5 to 4 and beat Dartmouth 1 to nothing. Frank Faria led the pitchers, while Hank Jackna, Marty Henriques and Billy Morgan gave assistance in the hitting department. Fairhaven will be looking towards another successful season in the newly formed Capeway Conference League.

Golf 1966

In 1966 the members of the Fairhaven High golf team, coached by Mr. Arieta, began their season with much enthusiasm and hope for a good year. Unfortunately their hopes did not materialize and they had to settle for a season in which they won only two of their eleven matches.

Tennis 1966

Gary goes for the big one.

In 1966 the Fairhaven High School tennis team finished fourth in the Southeastern Mass. Interscholastic Tennis League which consisted of six schools. This was the Blue Devils first losing season in nine years. Coach Twarog did a fine job in keeping the boy's spirit and determination at a high peak and, with a now more experienced squad, he hopes to make a fine showing in the newly formed Cape-way Conference League.

Girls' Basketball 1967

The Girls' Basketball team, under the direction of Miss Jean Campbell, made an exceptionally fine showing in the Bristol County League. In their last year of the Bristol County League, the girls succeeded in attaining a laudable 10-0 record. Unfortunately, the girls lost a close match for the championship to the Sacred Hearts Academy of Fall River by a score of 28-27.

An abstract graphic design featuring several thick, black, hand-drawn lines. A horizontal line spans the width of the page near the top. Two vertical lines, one slightly to the left of the center and one further to the right, extend from the top to the bottom of the page. A diagonal line crosses the page from the upper left towards the lower right, intersecting the other lines. The lines have a slightly irregular, ink-like quality.

Remember?
It seems so
Long ago now,
That we began
Those years at
F.H.S. We can
Look back now;
Our high school
Worries, hopes, disasters,
And happiness are
Past. We have
Given perhaps our
Hands, hearts, and
Faith when they
Were needed.
But now we must
Look ahead into
A new world,
A world waiting
For us to emerge.
We may never
Pass this way again,
And we can't
Go back
We must begin
This new
Journey of life.
